That Humbug Labor Committee.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3—The congressional committee on the labor question continued its session to-day Working men's representatives were on the stand again, and they laid the blame of depression in business to national and state legislation, the granting of lands to railroads, and other corporations and the granting of large interest on bonds They advanced the idea that government should pass a homestead law and throw the public lands open to settlement and assist men to settle there

W. A. A. Corsey, who said he was a bricklayer and editor declared that in his opinion the public school system was bad Government, he claimed, should establish schools where mechanical trades and arts would be taught He denounced the contract system under national, state and city governments As a consequence the work was of the worst possible construction, and it gave opportunity to men to grind down the laboring class and employ Chinese and others against whom American laborers could not compete, because the latter cannot live as cheap as the former He thought it bad policy for any government to encourage swarms of foreigners to drive out native laborers. Corsey appealed to the committee to impress on their fellow congressmen the necessity of some legislation this winter which will bring relief to working classes, Knowing the temper and needs of the workingmen, he felt certain that if congress did not step in at an early day with ameliorating legislation, this winter would not pass without trouble, and repetition of the labor riots of last summer A good movement would be the institution of a comprehensive system of internal improvements and inflation of the currency to carry on these improvements He said he would have a strong central government which would issue its notes to assist its people, and be looked upon by the people as the real government of the country, strong popular and protecting He would have seamen work on shore and sent away to the plains where they are alone needed He advocated the greenback system, but said "let congress give the country a homestead act with assistance to settle on the public lands and with a comprehensive internal improvement act workingmen would fight out the inflation question at the polls He did not believe the laboring classes willing to starve eight or ten years to prevent a panic

J Osborn Ward who said he was organizer of the socialistic labor party in Brooklyn advocated a grand co-operative Christian society in which everything was to be equal and in common

Geo W Maddox of the congress of humanity, wanted the government to issue fourteen thousand million dollars or so to New York to build docks etc and comparatively similar sums to other cities to be expended in public works When these works would have made sufficient returns then let the government be paid back and notes destroyed as canceled bonds are

Crops in Iowa Minnesota and Wisconsin

CHICAGO, Aug 2—President Keep has just returned from a trip over the Northwestern railroad and all its tributaries As he has carefully examined the crop prospects in the region where [illegible] damage has been done by untimely weather his conclusions are of interest [illegible] was backward until two or three weeks ago when it took a sudden start [illegible] forward as usual at this time [illegible] Iowa it promises as good as last year W[illegible] generally injured largely by the heat [illegible] being in northern Iowa and [illegible] Here both the quality and quantity are affected, and the general yield [illegible] exceed [illegible] bushels per acre. Wes[illegible] is better than eastern Here the aver[illegible] will be twelve to fifteen bushels [illegible] Minnesota seem discouraged [illegible] elsewhere are [illegible] better spring The proportion [illegible] worthless wheat a very small [illegible] occasional field has been abandoned [illegible] generally fair Barley is poor [illegible] Iowa and Minnesota wheat is mostly [illegible] There will be as much business for [illegible] and Northwestern in every [illegible] except wheat as there was last year The damage to crops has been considerably overestimated Other prominent men who accompanied President Keep concur in this opinion

THE SOUTHERN PROGRAMME

WHAT THEY WILL DO WHEN THEY GET CONTROL OF THE GOVERNMENT

[Montgomery (Ala) Correspondence Philadelphia Press]

There is not a Bourbon leader in Alabama to day who is not engaged in perfecting the policy for the payment of Southern claims they all deny that they entertain any purpose of asking such payment, but they are as deceitful in this as in every other ulterior purpose Among themselves they boast of their purpose of soon controlling the federal government, and then, as before the war, the Southern Democracy will be the power behind the throne, and they now threaten to nullify the new amendments to have all legislation which recognizes the triumph of the union wiped out to have the cotton tax refunded to have the Southern claims paid to have confederate pensioners and to restore the government back to the position it occupied in 1860.

All the forts arsenals etc, in the south are to be placed in control of southern officers while army and navy are to be carefully revolutionized in order that southern officers may be secured commands While the people who saved the union are confiding in the utterances of conciliatory professions and are sleeping in the confidence that all is quiet throughout the country, the southern Bourbon Democracy are perfecting their schemes of securing control of the government and reimbursing themselves for their losses in the war of secession. Republican opposition is crushed in the south, and there is no longer dependence to be placed in the colored vote In Alabama few white citizens are able to stand up under the storms of abuse and villification which are hurled at them by the Bourbon press whenever they oppose these revolutionary schemes There is less toleration and freedom in Alabama to day than at any time prior to the war Every white man who challenges the conduct or purposes of the Democratic leaders is abused with such violence by the Democratic press, that but few dare to utter sentiments of opposition. The result is that the Republican State Convention refused to nominate a state ticket although the party has a real majority of voters in the state, and with the Independents—if there was any freedom of opinion allowed in the state—the opposition to the Bourbons would have a clear majority of 40 000 or 50 000 votes

But with the violent spirit of ostracism and intolerance which now so strongly prevails the anomaly is presented to the American people of 130 000 voters in a free state (?) absolutely at the mercy of 90 000 other voters and not daring to oppose the latter in a contest at the polls The result will be the election of eight Bourbon members of congress in this state, while if there was anything like freedom of action or speech, the opposition to the Bourbons could elect four out of the eight members possibly five A legislature will be chosen which will elect a straightout Bourbon intolerant as United States senator, to succeed Spencer Republican If there was any toleration of free speech and action in this state the Republicans and Independents could secure a majority of the members of the legislature and elect a liberal possibly a Republican to succeed Mr Spencer

Opening of the Olympia and Tenino Railroad

[From the Olympia Transcript]

According to previous notice and invitation from the railroad directors Olympia was all astir early on Thursday morning to celebrate the opening of the Olympia and Tenino Railroad in a grand excursion to Tenino About 8 o'clock the train consisting of six cars including passenger and platform, to receive the excursionists came down to Marshville bridge About 350 persons, including the cornet band which is always on hand and gratuitously gives its services on such occasions got aboard, and the first train started out amid music from the band hurrahs from the crowd and waving of handkerchiefs, and a general rejoicing At Tumwater another delegation was taken on board and the train soon sped along over the road to Tenino Arriving there they were met by a large crowd of people awaiting their coming and among them several gentlemen connected with the Northern Pacific road In a short time the train returned to Olympia with a large number of those who went out and bringing about [illegible]0 visitors from Tenino In the afternoon a very large crowd went out and all returned in the evening While the train was absent from Tenino a dancing hall was improvised on the platform where for two or three hours the young folks enjoyed themselves in tripping the light fantastic and others passed the time pleasantly about the town No accident occurred to mar the festivities of the occasion and every one speaks in high praise of the trip Probably not less than a thousand persons were on the road during the day Our people have been working diligently and untiringly for the accomplishment of this enterprise, having advanced liberally of their means, turned out on every occasion when required to help the work along and many field days and entertainments have been gotten up, to accomplish which this grand gala day is the crowning act of all It was well that it should be properly celebrated

Kearneyism and Butlerism Defined

[From the New York Tribune]

The insurrection against all the respectabilities and decencies of modern civilization enlisting the prejudices and passions of the lowest classes needs a rich Butler to foot the bills as well as a reckless Kearney to stir up a mob If any man can come forward with a sensible statement of the real needs of the laboring men and of practical remedies, he ought to be hailed as a public benefactor by everybody and will be as welcomed by every intelligent capitalist or laborer but nobody can answer wind ranting nobody can meet with reason men who [illegible] know what they want nor why they want it The most dangerous force in society at present is the [illegible] [illegible] how [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and that [illegible] some blind and [illegible] [illegible] entirely [illegible]

Republican Greenback Record

[From the Indianapolis Journal

The proper place for every honest Greenback man is [illegible] Republican party It [illegible] has maintained [illegible] the attacks of Rebels Repudiationists and Democrats Under the wise and fostering policy of the Republican party the greenback has appreciated to within a fraction of par with gold and it is the intention of the party to make it fully equal to gold and keep it there The Democratic party has always fought greenbacks, and would degrade them now if they had the power.

Another California Tragedy.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug 3—A letter recently received from Concord, Contra Costa county represents that a family named Morgan residing on a farm at that place have been for some time in a state of domestic infelicity It culminated on Wednesday night in a scene which threatens to prove fatal to two persons Morgan is a farmer For some time past his wife has been intemperate in her habits, and domestic broils have been of frequent occurrence On the night in question Mr Morgan came home after being absent all day and found his wife and two men lying in the barn in a state of stupid intoxication The spectacle so infuriated Morgan that, seizing a club, he belabored the two men so soundly with it that at the time the letter was written their lives were despaired of. He spared his wife any such infliction, contenting himself with turning her adrift, bag and baggage Another report says Morgan's wife had been drinking in a saloon with two tramps Morgan caught them together in his corral, his wife in a drunken condition and one of the men in improper relations with her. Morgan beat him badly with a stake No bones were broken or serious injury done They were taken to the county hospital Morgan's wife left for San Francisco as soon as she recovered from her drunk She has no children and is about thirty years of age Morgan and she were married six months ago, after a very short acquaintance

Homicide in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug 4—About noon to day William J Wilson driver of engine No 1 of fire department, and John B Warner extra man of No. 1 hose company, with a number of other firemen, were at the engine house Pacific street between Montgomery and Sansome Warner invited the crowd to drink at a neighboring saloon, and subsequently extended a personal invitation to Wilson who refused but asked Warner to accompany him, taking him to the upper floor of a stable opposite the engine house On arriving there Warner asked Wilson his purpose when the latter struck him and applying most opprobrious epithets said he wanted to whip him. Rough language followed on both sides and the two men moved towards the stairs when Wilson suddenly again struck Warner with some hard instrument presumably a pistol A clinch ensued during which Warner got out his pistol and fired two or three shots at close quarters one striking Wilson in the jaw and another in the breast killing him almost instantly Wilson fired one shot without effect Just as Wilson fell his wife, who had been notified of the impending trouble, came running up, followed by an officer to whom Warner surrendered himself The above is Warner's version of the difficulty Mrs Wilson says that as she came in view of the two men Warner pulled a pistol when her husband backed off ten or fifteen steps, drawing his pistol but not firing till after Warner's first shot Warner's story is however corroborated by circumstances and statements of some who profess to have been eye witnesses The trouble was the sequel to a difficulty which occurred between the two men some weeks ago Wilson was a native of New York aged 35

THE GRANT PROGRAMME

THE EFFORTS MAKING TO PREPARE THE WAY FOR GRANT AND MAKE HIS PATHS STRAIGHT FOR 1880—THE OVATION THAT IS TO BE WHEN HE RETURNS

H V Redfield's Washington Letter to the Cincinnati Commercial

Journals which laugh at or ignore the Grant movement don't know how much there is in it Speaking of this matter to a well known government official here to day who has just returned from a visit to Pennsylvania he too expressed surprise at the strength of the Grant movement in that state as well as in other quarters The gentleman has been many years in congress, and has a very large private [illegible] I withhold his name because he does not wish to have his views, with name attached spread on record just now Although not conspicuously a Grant man he thinks that the individual has not lived who could poll as many votes for the Republican party as Grant. If he cannot be elected this gentleman continued, "then it is apparently useless for anybody to try He would carry New York Pennsylvania Ohio and all the great northern states; and we have no assurance that any other Republican can carry all of them Hayes was as strong a candidate as we could have had in 1876 but he lost New York It was not his fault any Republican would have lost it

Would Grant [illegible]

Yes Grant would not have run with success in 1876 but he can in 1880 A great many people will not tolerate the idea of giving three terms in succession to any one man, but the lapse of a term does away largely with this objection for it is not a third term in the ordinary acceptance of the phrase The man who holds over from one term to another has a tremendous advantage in the use of patronage to help himself along if he chooses to employ it. But Grant being now out of office, can no more help himself in by the use of patronage than you or I If he goes in it will be upon his merits

Would the fact that he has been president eight years prevent you from voting for him for another term after the lapse of one term?

Not at all Eight years experience is not a disqualification

Do you believe he will be the Republican nominee?

It looks very much that way. Upon going home a few days ago I was surprised at the development of Grant feeling, if I may call it such A number of gentlemen were at my office one day, and the subject came up. I said nothing myself but drew out the others They were all Republicans to be sure, but every one declared himself for Grant taking the general ground that he would make the strongest possible Republican candidate and that his having served two terms was not a disqualification after the lapse of a term They could not support him for three terms in succession, but a third term after an intermission of four years, they thought not objectionable While we were talking a Democrat came along, a man of considerable property We put the question to him, knowing him to be dissatisfied with the communistic tendencies of a wing of the Democratic party He said it was too early to give an opinion, but that he preferred Grant to some Democrats who had been mentioned for the position A Greeley Republican thought the Republicans could elect Grant, but doubted if any other Republican could pull through This man had a vivid recollection of 1872"

Do you think Grant could get most of the Greeley votes?

I do As between him and a Democrat they would go for Grant

What is Grant's chief strength?

"Oh, his elements of strength are numerous At one time he commanded twelve hundred thousand men These men are mostly alive to day and all voters Perhaps nearly half of them are Democrats, but a large per cent even of these would vote for Grant He owed his success in 1868 and 1872 largely to the soldier vote. Hardly a man of us but what knows of instances of soldiers voting for Grant who usually voted the Democratic ticket This a great element of strength with Grant, Another thing that will tend to give him the nomination is the fact that there is no other Republican who towers up conspicuously Where is one who has the exceptional elements of strength possessed by Grant?

You think then that Grant will be nominated and re elected?

Not so strong as that Looking at it now I believe he stands a better chance of nomination than any other Republican that can be named, and if nominated I believe he will prove a stronger candidate than any Republican who could be nominated Still it is a good distance to look ahead But I believe the Grant movement, as it is called is growing, and growing rapidly?

The policy of the Grant men original and otherwise is to get up a communistic panic and frighten property into his support. The uneasy feeling which already prevails will be made the most of Grant's name is supposed to represent strength and stability, which are essentials in government affairs I said to a Democrat the other day—a man of property, who has earned it by hard labor and saved it by economy—could you be induced to vote for Grant?

Yes under certain circumstances I would vote for him

Do you consider the fact that he has served two terms an objection?

Not in the least after the lapse of one term I could not stand three terms in succession but if Grant is a candidate in 1880 under such circumstances as I would desire to vote for him the mere fact that he had served two terms previous to 1876 would not make a particle of difference to me

I expressed some surprise at this, for the gentleman who spoke had voted the Democratic ticket uninterruptedly for thirty years

A Republican who is in the Grant ring so called, tells me that Grant is to have the greatest ovation upon his return home that America has ever given to living man The ovations and attentions he is receiving in Europe are nothing to what awaits him here

Have you noticed said the gentleman that Grant's name always evokes applause from American audiences? Yes, I had noticed something of the sort Well continued this enthusiastic man just wait till he touches our shores and makes a round of the great cities I told him I thought I would wait and see it I was further informed that $50 000 could be raised in Philadelphia in five hours and twice the sum in New York to give Grant a send off that would send him into and through the Republican convention From the time Grant touches our shore the pot will boil.

Some may laugh—many do—but to those who sincerely believe that a third term means an end to our republican institutions and an empire this is no laughing matter. But I do not believe this I think Grant is a patriot with as sincere affection for his country and her institutions as animates the average American Other things being equal I should not hesitate to vote for him in 1880 simply because he had been president two terms His experience should be in the nature of a qualification Besides all of his cousins and [illegible] law are fat by this time and can afford to step aside and give the rest of the United States a chance But be this as it may those who oppose Grant simply because he was elected in 1868 and 1872 and for no other reason seem to me to have narrow ground to stand upon

If in 1880 as now seems probable the inflationists so called workingmen eight hour idiots and communistic elements should be gathered under the Democratic banner and Grant should be nominated by the Republicans I would vote for him without fear that this was the end of the republic I do not believe that Grant or a third term, or both together will kill the republic. It is from violation of written rather than unwritten laws that is our danger However it would be much better to [illegible] down to this it seems to me the country could not do better than take Hayes There has not been a better president than he, nor are we likely to have one

But it is early to discuss these matters only they are being discussed as vigorously as though the hour was not early If there is so much talk now what will there be next year when Grant comes home and the country is set in an uproar by a series of receptions such as no other man has been given? These receptions are not doubtful They are to take place with the regularity of an artillery salute. They are part first on the programme

A SLIGHT UNPLEASANTNESS

The St Louis Republican, representing the Union wing of the Democracy of Missouri, raises a protest against the claim of the Confederate Democracy to all the honors which the state has to confer After referring to the fact that Cockrell was elected to the Senate four years ago because he was a Confederate, it says

It is now proposed not only to disallow the claims of St. Louis to one of the Senatorships but to seat Colonel Vest by the side of General Cockrell in Washington as another representative of the but lately disfranchised element. We say to the ex confederates of the state that this is too much It is unfair to the Union Democrats of Missouri and especially in the eastern section of the State, and it is unfair and impolitic towards the National Democracy of the country If successful, the plan will be heralded all over the country as "proof" of the proscription of union men in the Democratic states, and used with telling force in the October campaign of 1880 preceding the presidential election. The respectability and numbers of the ex confederates and their sympathizers are such that no objection is raised to one representative in the senate to be agreed upon among themselves and, whether Cockrell or Vest, he would no doubt be cheerfully supported but there is no such preponderance of talent in this state among those who fought four years for their [rebel] Democracy is to claim both Senators and both from the same section Up to the present time both the union and rebel elements of the Democracy have go along harmoniously since the war closed The union men do not propose now to be virtually proscribed without protest or remonstrance "Why," said one of them the other day "if this thing keeps on, we shall have to go before the legislature, take the oath of allegiance to the rebel confederacy and have our union disabilities removed

This protest has raised something of a breeze among the ex rebels, who are loudly complaining of ostracism The Kansas City Journal, a Republican paper, puts the matter in this way

Up here in this part of Missouri, the idea of a union Democrat getting an office is never thought of We have in this (Jackson) county three candidates for congress and the only question is which of them was the better rebel, or which is so yet. * * * The fact is, the rebel Democrats are the only Democracy there is in Missouri They have used the so called union Democracy to howl for them, and that is all they ever intended for them to do Their treatment of Gen Shields shows this The union Democrats who were with Douglas and who followed the flag when Claib Jackson turned traitor, are to day in the Republican ranks and it is a false claim when the Republican and its crew set themselves up as the "union Democrats" of Missouri

GRANT IN AMSTERDAM

HE SAYS HE WILL NOT COME HOME IF HE MUST RUN FOR PRESIDENT AGAIN.

[From a Private Letter in the Detroit Post July 19]

One thing is evidently certain, and that is, the reputation which the General acquired in America for reticence, for a Sphynx like uncommunicativeness, and for making responses by an eloquent stroke of silence is rapidly passing away For certainly during his visit in Holland scarcely any gentleman can be found who converses more fluently intelligently, entertainingly and continously on all topics of general interest than he did Whether the subject was finance, electoral frauds, the Indian war, international intercourse, tariff or free trade, commercial interests, agricultural affairs, or the peculiarities of the different countries which he had visited, his remarks were ready, direct abounding in fact and common sense, liberal and magnanimous to opponents, but positive in his conclusions. When allusion was made in his presence to the clamor about fraud in the late presidential election, he remarked that the assertion that the popular vote showed a Democratic majority was a palpable absurdity when the figures were examined, that the real fraud was in a dishonest count of the vote on their side. "Look for example," said he, "at New York The entire vote of that state in 1868 was 819,766 In 1872 it was only 827,858, out of which the Republican ticket had a majority of 53 20[illegible] yet in 1876 the entire vote was raised to 1 011 156, an increase of 183 318, and by no means warranted by the growth of population Out of this the Democratic ticket was counted as having 134 670 more votes than it had at the preceding election, and this too although the Republican ticket gained 49 000 votes Can anybody,' he said, believe this to have been an honest count? And yet it has been tolerated and conceded by the Republican party Or" said he, "take the facts in regard to Mississippi In 1872 the entire presidential vote was 129,107, of which the Democratic ticket had only 47 191, but yet in 1876 the entire vote was 163,774, out of which were counted for the Democrats 112 173, giving their candidate a majority of 59,468. No one," said he, "who is well informed in regard to the situation of that state can believe that such a count was an exposition of the preference of the electors. Also of South Carolina. In 1872 the entire vote was 95,193 of which the Democrats only claimed 22 903 yet in 1876 the entire vote is run up to 183,521, and the Democratic vote to 91 440 Can any one be here, said he, that there was neither fraud nor intimidation in securing such a result. No, the real fraud has been perpetrated by those who are raising the cry of fraud' The General seemed perfectly familiar with the figures and the results He appears to have studied the Southern question very thoroughly

During all his conversation not a word was heard from him expressive of any desire to be again in office. A gentleman introduced to him having remarked that when he went back to his country he might be again a candidate for the presidency, he at once replied "If I thought that I would not go back at all"

Shad Hatching on a Large Scale.

[Washington Telegram, July 25]

Prof J W Milner who has charge of the shad hatching operations under the direction of the United States fish commissioner Prof Baird, is now engaged in the preparation of the report of the work for the season just completed Speaking of the work on the Atlantic seaboard and the distribution of young fish the report says that at the Salmon creek station on Albemarle Sound they obtained 12 730 000 eggs and turned out 3,000,000 young fish At the Havre de Grace station 12 230 000 eggs were obtained and 9 575 000 young fish were turned out About 6 000 000 young shad have been distributed in the rivers emptying in the Atlantic and Gulf of Mexico during the season The distribution of shad during the past season has been carried on on a much larger scale than in any previous year and with great success Prof Baird now feels assured that the restocking of the rivers of the Atlantic with this valuable representative of the finny tribe is only the work of a few years

Henry S Smith the Greenback candidate for governor of Michigan says that the government must pay its bonds in gold—anything short of this would be repudiation and would make wretched work—and that he thinks the national banks are bad for the government and good for the people Mr Smith's ideas on finance are obviously a little mixed

Alexander H Stephens says grandiloquently that he never shrank from danger or [illegible] but he certainly gave a very wide berth [illegible]

THE INDIAN WAR

Whereabouts of the Hostiles.

BOISE CITY Aug 4—The number of hostiles who passed up Snake river is variously estimated by observers at from 75 to 200. These are probably what is left of the party of Bannacks who raided this section of Idaho at the beginning of the war The Piutes and other allies are yet in Oregon, between Malheur and Stein's mountains and along the Owyhee river committing depredations sufficient to engage attention of troops in that quarter while the Bannacks proceed in the direction of Lemhi to form a junction with Ten Doy's band who have left the reservation and are now supposed to be ready for hostilities.

A letter from Capt. Hailey, from Cold springs on the overland road, Aug 2d, says . He sent scouts out that day They have just returned and report they found Indians in large force on both sides of Snake river at Big Bottom, near Brauneau Indians charged the scouts for five miles, firing at them

MATTERS IN YAKIMA VALLEY.

CONTINUED ALARM—MOVEMENTS OF REDSKINS—INDIAN THIEVES PLYING THEIR TRADE—PEOPLE LEAVING THE VALLEY—RENEGADE UMATILLAS ON THE NORTH SIDE OF THE COLUMBIA BELIEVED TO BE THE PRINCIPAL OFFENDERS

YAKIMA CITY, July 27, 1878.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Since my last communication the Indian excitement has again risen to a fever heat, The parties who went out to Rattlesnake springs after the bodies of Lorenzo Perkins and wife returned night before last, and yesterday the remains were followed to their last resting place by a large concourse of friends

The Umatilla mail-carrier started with the mail as usual this week. He proceeded as far as the rapids, about 60 miles below here, when he saw a very large band of horses driven by Indians. Believing, from their actions, that they were hostiles, he retraced his steps to Yakima City Two Indians chased him for several miles. The Indians are making their way to Priest Rapids via Rattlesnake springs We understand they are collecting there in large numbers, what their object is we can only conjecture, but we are satisfied they are not friendly. The Indians here appear to be terribly excited. They believe them to be Umatillas and Bannacks. There are at least 2,000 Indians within one day's ride of this place, and we have only 100 guns in the valley. We have sent messengers with dispatch after dispatch, besides numerous letters, asking Gov. Ferry to send us arms, for we have not received our quota of arms allotted by the government, but he has treated us with utter contempt, not even answering our telegrams and totally disregarding our entreaties by letter. Ferry has guns to loan to Gov. Chadwick, but refuses to send them to his own people, where they rightfully belong. As a last report we have telegraphed to the secretary of war. We sincerely hope that he will have the condition to notice our communication, even though he renders no assistance. Several parties are missing who started from Okanagan for Yakima City over three weeks ago. Serious fears are entertained for their safety, but of these I will say nothing at present, for possibly they may be safe

Crops are looking finely here, but in some instances have been sadly neglected on account of the Indian scare. Families are leaving here every day for The Dalles and Portland. Many of them expect never to return Unless something is done to relieve us from our isolated position or protect us in case of an invasion portions of this country will be almost depopulated.

JULY 30th.

Thirty of the Umatillas, who escaped across the Columbia, and who are, beyond a reasonable doubt, the ones who murdered Perkins and wife, are now camped on this side of the river from where Moses is staying. The messenger who was sent from Moses to Father Wilbur, reports that Moses said to them "I want you to stay on your own side of the river. Your hands may be stained with blood, and if you should come among my people you will get me into trouble." But notwithstanding Moses' commands, one half of them have already crossed over.

Chief Smohalla is between Moses and Priest's Rapids. Some of Moses' Indians came into Kittitas Valley and took some of Mr. H McCuen's horses out of the pasture in broad daylight, and drove them off. Some of the reservation Indians warned J. B. Huntington and others on the Lower Yakima to leave, telling him that the hostiles were coming through that country, and would in all probability kill him and his herders He, thinking discretion the better part of valor, betook himself to safer quarters. No sooner had he gone than these same redskins entered his house and carried off everything they could find, and rode away on some of his horses. Father Wilbur has at last detected the thieves, and they are now carrying a ball and chain at Fort Simcoe. Settlers are still leaving here every day. Several wagons from Kittitas Valley passed through here to-day. Chief Moses refused to be interviewed last week by two parties who were sent here for the express purpose of hearing what he had to say.

Unpleasantness with Indians at [illegible]

[From the Pendleton Independent.]

The Indians hereabouts are getting very saucy and impudent. The other day two bucks occupied chairs in front of the hotel very much to the annoyance of every one. On being told to vacate and leave they objected, when James Raley, without any more argument, pitched one of them into the street headlong. He picked himself up in a hurry and made tracks for the agency, not even stopping to look back Another was making himself very conspicuous on the street the same day, demanding the release of an Indian in jail, displaying considerable ammunition and wanting to find some one who dared to take it away from him. We learned that he threatened to kill two of the [illegible] boys, whereupon Ben proceed to [illegible] sized head on him, and started him home. He had not proceeded far, however, before he stopped and began to abuse another citizen who threw a rock at him, hitting him in the back after which he took it out. Served them right. If the government don't disarm its pets and that, too pretty soon, we shall not be surprised to hear of a "good Injun" every now and then.

USE OF INDIAN ALLIES.

It cannot have escaped general notice that success of the government in dealing with refractory Indians has very frequently been in proportion to the skill of officers in securing the services of Indian allies. The Modocs were finally brought to terms in this way; and the most effective work against the Piutes and Bannacks this summer has been done by the Umatilla Indians who were induced to go against them. In this case, as in nearly every similar one, there was an element of treachery on the part of these allies toward the hostile band; but it is not necessary to inquire too nicely into these things when the lives of people are menaced by a murderous and savage foe. The Helena (Montana) Herald, speaking of the general Indian situation, rightly expresses wonder that our government does not make more use of Indians to fight Indians, instead of raising, equipping, transporting and sacrificing white men in that service. The suggestion is the policy of common sense, as well as the policy of mercy and humanity. What would England have done towards conquering India if she had pursued the policy followed by our government? Indian troops, officered only by Englishmen, have conquered India; and the world has scarcely yet recovered from its wonder at seeing Indian troops thrown as a menace in the face of Europe. An outcry was justly raised at the use by the English nation of barbarous Indians on this continent to fight their revolted colonies of the same blood and faith; but no one can raise the same objection to the use of Indians for fighting Indians. The most sentimental philanthropy could not exclaim against it as a policy of inhumanity. The barbarities they mutually practice, which would be revolting if adopted by civilized men even as a measure of retaliation upon the worst of savages, are considered as very proper accompaniments of war among themselves.

Indians can be equipped and supported at much less expense than regular troops; and understanding the habits of their adversaries they can be brought into conflict with less waste of time. The Indian, too, is easily stimulated by offers of honors and rewards to engage in enterprises that require celerity and intrepidity; and his habits give him great endurance amid the privations of a campaign. In our pursuit of a fanciful humanity we have really practiced the hardest cruelty toward our own soldiers. We do not give them the training for the sort of warfare they are to engage in; yet at the same time we expect them to pursue on foot and over unknown trails well mounted enemies who are thoroughly acquainted with the country. We expend our sympathies on the Indian who spurns and despises us therefor, and are unmercifully exacting in our requirements of our own officers and men, of whom we expect things almost impossible, without giving them any adequate training and equipment for the arduous service.

If the care of the Indians were turned over to the war department, and this idea of using Indians to fight Indians were adopted, we should need no present increase of the regular army, and expenses of these campaigns would be largely diminished. So soon as the Indians were brought under the steady treatment of army officers they would become contented and very soon attached to them and accustomed to obey, so that they would follow their leadership with a ready and emulous alacrity. Certainly for the kind of warfare this country is likely to have on its hands for years to come,—the pursuit and chastisement of hostile Indians and Mexican cattle thieves,—Indian troops would be as effective under American officers as the English have made their Sepoys for war on their rebellious tribes. We have to maintain the Indians at any rate, and it is said with truth that under our present system, which has failed of every good result, it costs more to support them, than it would to board them at the best hotels of the country. We should adopt a new system of Indian management, by receiving all Indians necessary as allies into the service of the United States under the discipline and direction of our military officers. When there were no hostile Indians or raiding Mexicans to pursue and chastise, they might be employed in field drill or hunting expeditions. This would just suit the Indian nature. They would take to it more kindly than to work, and become more serviceable. The maximum of utility and the minimum of cost in maintaining a proper portion of them might then be reached. This feature is worth considering in connection with the proposition to transfer the keeping of the Indians to the war department.

COMMITTEE ON THE LABOR QUESTION.

For any practical result it may reach, that congressional labor committee in session at New York may as well dissolve at once. If, however, its idea is to bring conspicuously before the attention of the country the moonshine and folly of so-called labor reformers, its mission may not be altogether in vain. But the very fact that a committee of congress is listening to the drivel of these visionaries, and is causing the publication of their whimwhams and fooleries all over the country is a circumstance which not only gives them more consideration than they are entitled to, but actually lends color with the unthinking to the utterly false notion that great advantages to labor, including short hours and long pay, are to be secured through legislation. It encourages a belief that the remedy for our working classes is in congress and not in themselves. A conception so erroneous and absurd will lead to further misery just in proportion as it becomes more general. If we are to get on in the world all of us are under the necessity of legislating for ourselves. Our resources are wholly in our own energies, congress has no power to supply them, and the jargon of an inquiry on the subject before a congressional committee is too contemptible for any sensible person to listen to with the least degree of patience. After all the deliberations of committees and congresses are ended this question will be left just where it was at first. It is not only a pitiful farce, but it is absolutely wrong to fill the popular mind with an idea that great benefits are to be expected from some possible action of congress. The thoughtless will conclude that as here is a committee investigating the subject, a way is now to be provided through legislation to scatter plenty o'er a smiling land by securing to every man large pay for small work. It is criminal to propagate delusions of this kind. The testimony taken and the opinions expressed before the committee show how deep a hold the most fatuous notions of communism have already obtained. It is only for demagogy that the committee sits and listens to this stupid gibberish.

Recorder Hackett, of New York, says that [illegible] norant classes of the city, but has increased among the intelligent and educated. In charging a grand jury respecting the frauds of trustees and officers of commercial institutions, he asserts that the calendar shows that among savings banks and insurance corporations, crimes of fraud and other forms of dishonesty have increased a hundred per cent. within the last three years. Places of honor and trust are prostituted to the basest uses. An insane greed for money and fashionable luxury, threatens the integrity of the state and every part of the social fabric. This is certainly rather a desponding view to take of the situation. If the wealthy and cultivated classes in the east have become so weak that they fail to recognize the responsibilities and necessities of their position, they will inevitably become the prey of the fierce insurgent elements that mow and gibber in the lower strata of society; which, in turn, will have to be strangled by the stronger and better men which the occasion will produce. Side by side with the lurking horse thieves and cutthroats in the mining camps of the west, are always found the vigilantes to keep the atmosphere endurable.

The District of Columbia has over $13,000,000 of bonds outstanding for improvements, and it is charged that a quarter of a million dollars were spent at the last session of congress to procure the following clause in an act relating to the district:

> Hereafter the secretary of the treasury shall pay interest on the 3-65 bonds of the District of Columbia, issued in pursuance of the act of congress approved June 20, 1874, when the same shall become due and payable, and all amounts so paid shall be credited as a part of the appropriation for the year by the United States toward the expenses of the District of Columbia, as hereinbefore provided.

The Washington Post alleges that several representatives were paid large sums, and the senate committee was corrupted. This exposure is vastly more exciting to the Washington people than the Hunton-Alexander affair.

It is not necessary to say that the New York Times has vindicated its claim to be the leading Republican newspaper in the country. It has most intelligently and steadfastly urged reforms in the civil administration of the government. But it pronounces judgment in this matter against Mr. Hayes, saying pointedly that his course in this matter is insincere and unworthy of further confidence. With even greater plainness it says: "We will not speak of statesmanship; Mr. Hayes' course has not even the poor merit of political respectability." It is apparent to every impartial observer that the main features of Mr. Hayes' reforms of the civil service are imbecility and favoritism.

It has not been a lucky year for the old partners of Butler. John M. Thompson has been beaten for renomination for the house in the Butler district by Col. S. B. Dick, of Meadville.

Kellogg in Clover.

[From the New York Times.]

There is a general appearance of shakiness about civil service matters in Washington. The control of federal patronage in Louisiana has passed into the hands of Senator Kellogg, to whom all appointments are said to be respectfully referred before being consummated. Senator Kellogg is doubtless an admirable person, but not just the sort of a man to whom any sincere reform could be safely entrusted. The change in the New Orleans postmastership is credited to the senator, and that removal was made in the face of the postmaster general's emphatic endorsement of the incumbent.

Twelve years ago a poor man in Oakland, California, across the bay from San Francisco, pre-empted a long stretch of mud flats on the bay shore, erecting a shanty there and living in it. He has just been awarded $95,000, gold coin, for his twelve years' guardianship and his "squatter rights."

New System of Wagon Brakes.

TRULLINGER PATENT BRAKE.

NO SHOES TO WEAR OUT TIRES!

No Brake Bar used. Will hold a Wagon anywhere from Backing or going Forward.

THIS NEW BRAKE NOW BEING INTRODUCED by the inventor, J. C. Trullinger, is a combination of friction gear applied to the hub of a wagon. It is simple and light, yet has more strength and durability than any other wagon brake now in use. It is so attached to the wagon that it is out of the way of the gearing, yet always reliable and at hand when required. Any teamster or mechanic can see at once its utility and effective force to hold a load on a down grade, or to prevent horse backing when required. The Brake is made entirely of iron, no wooden part being necessary, as no brake bar is used; hence it does not carry mud and is not affected by wet and muddy or icy roads.

We invite critical examination, as we believe its merits can be demonstrated to any party who uses or understands a wagon brake.

Bishop Scott Grammar School.

A Boarding & Day School for Boys.

PORTLAND, OREGON.

Under the Supervision of BISHOP MORRIS.

THIS SCHOOL WILL OPEN IN THE COMMOdious and beautiful new building on TUESDAY, Sept. 3d, under the Headmastership of PROF. JOSEPH W. HILL, an A. M. of Yale College. There will be a full corps of faithful and experienced assistants, among them Mr. Louis Miner, already favorably known to the patrons of the school.

Among the very satisfactory testimonials that Bishop Morris has received concerning Prof Hill, are the following

YALE COLLEGE, April 26, 1878.

This may certify that Mr. Joseph W. Hill has had ample experience in teaching, is mature in years, and is well fitted to take charge of a High School. He is a man of excellent character, and cannot fail to give satisfaction as a teacher.

(Signed) N. PORTER, Pres.

THE SELLECK SCHOOL, NORWALK, Conn.,
Jan. 16, 1878.

I have long known Mr. Joseph W. Hill. He was my pupil for years and has since taught for me. To his ability and worth I unhesitatingly testify. He is an earnest student and in my judgment possesses rare qualifications for the profession of teaching. I commend him very cordially and thoroughly.

(Signed) REV. C. M. SELLECK, Principal.

CITY.

TRULLINGER'S PATENT BRAKE.—We have examined the new brake recently patented by John C. Trullinger of Astoria, which is advertised in this paper, and must say that it works with excellent effect. It is the simplest and we believe the most effective brake ever used. It may be applied to wagons and vehicles of all kinds, and also to railway cars. It is lighter than any other brake, carries no mud, and is not attached to the wagon box as other brakes are; hence when the box is taken off it does not remove the brake. At the same time it is worked with greatest ease. A child may handle it. Many citizens of Astoria testify to its successful working, among them J. W. Gerhart, R. R. Spedden, T. S. Jewett of the Astoria Truck and Dray Company, Judge Bowlby and others. Mr. Fred Sherman says of it: "In relation to the Trullinger patent wagon brake I have this to say: That I have used it upon my heaviest wagons, and have put it to severe tests with loads of gravel and earth, and found the brake to do effective work, even better than any I ever saw, with a load of two tons, going down a pitch of thirty feet in a distance of one hundred feet, without breeching upon the horses' harness, and I do most positively and emphatically recommend its use. It holds the load easy, without extraordinary effort on the part of the driver." This brake we believe is destined to prevent the accidents which have heretofore been so common, like that by which Asher Wall was killed not long ago in Southern Oregon. It will be introduced by Hawley, Dodd & Co.

HERE WE ARE AGAIN.—We have appealed to the mayor, common council, chief of police and pound master, in vain; and now we would like to know if the superintendent of streets can not interpose and prevent cattle men from driving their herds through the city in the day time at the imminent risk of persons who are on the streets. Here is an opportunity for an official to distinguish himself and merit the benedictions of a grateful people. Tennyson in this energetic verse expresses our feelings exactly:

> Ah God! for a man with a heart, head, hand,
> Like some of the simple great ones gone,
> Forever and ever by;
> One still strong man in a blatant land,
> Whatever you call what care I?
> Aristocrat, autocrat, democrat, one,
> Who can rule and dare not lie.

If this fails to produce enforcement of the cattle ordinance, we shall try again. We hereby give notice that we intend to persevere in this cause.

PACIFIC COAST PATENTS.—The following patents have been issued to Pacific coast inventors: Wm. R. Hamilton and G. Canning Smith, Mendocino, Cal., railway car trucks; John Brizee, Alvarado, Cal., window screens; Hiram M. Clemons, Gold Hill, Nev., horseshoes; Geo. R. Evans, San Francisco, Cal., non-conducting compounds; Wm. H. Henderson, San Jose, Cal., safety hooks for harness saddles; Carl L. Henrich, San Francisco, Cal., apparatus for transmitting power and motion; Eugene Moreau, San Francisco, Cal., turntables for sewing machines; Wm. Smith, San Francisco, Cal., valves for water closets; John Feix, San Francisco, Cal., shields for the tops of crucibles or melting pots. Reissues—Wm. C. D. Body, Virginia City, Nev., clack valves for pumps. Trade marks—Lynde & Hough, San Francisco, Cal., codfish; Chas. R. Burrage, San Francisco, Cal., chemical compound for the complexion.

DEATH OF MR. PERRINE.—About a week ago Mr. C. E. Perrine, who owns a farm near Oak Point, W. T., was thrown from a load of hay, striking on one arm, bruising the limb. Although his arm gave him considerable pain, Mr. Perrine continued to work, throwing off several loads of hay. His arm soon began to swell and to give him great pain, and he was compelled to quit work. Erysipelas set in, shortly followed by mortification. Mr. Perrine became alarmed at the symptoms and visited Portland to receive medical attention. He continued to grow worse, and died last Friday night at the residence of Mr. H. L. Herman, his brother-in-law. Deceased was an excellent citizen and highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was an honored member of the Masonic fraternity. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon under the auspices of that order.

REPAIRING PARTY.—This morning a repairing party will leave here for Roseburg. On arriving there they will start at once for Coos Bay, overhauling the line as they advance. When this is accomplished, the repairers will start from Roseburg and proceed south as far as Sacramento, making whatever repairs are needed, and putting the line in the best condition possible. The party will take with them a team and wagon and all necessary tools and material.

S. S. WORK.—Rev. U. Gregory, of Santa Rosa, California, will meet the superintendents, teachers and friends of Sabbath school work at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock this (Monday) evening to consult with them in regard to the assembly of Sunday school workers, to be held next June at Yosemite valley, California. All friends of S. S. work are cordially invited.

WALKING MATCH.—The walking match which came off last Saturday evening at Oro Fino hall between Messrs. Crandall and Reid, for the distance of ten miles, resulted in Reid coming out victor. During the walk, Crandall fell down and sprained his ankle. His opponent came in about 10½ minutes ahead, making the distance in 1 hour, 30 minutes and 30 seconds.

INVITATION PARTY.—Capt. Carroll, of the Great Republic has generously granted the freedom of his elegant vessel to several gentlemen who will entertain a number of ladies and gentlemen on that steamer this evening. The affair, which is strictly private, promises to be one of unlimited social pleasure to those participating.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.—Saturday some very desirable property, located in East Portland, was disposed of at administrator's sale. A block located on Third street, between G and H, was purchased by Gov. W. W. Thayer for the sum of $1,000. A quarter of a block just opposite was purchased by Van B. DeLashmutt for $550.

ARRIVED.—A dispatch from Astoria to Col. J. R. Farrish yesterday, states that the American ships Belle of Oregon, from Hongkong and the Storm King, from Bombay, had both arrived there. The Storm King arrived late Saturday afternoon, and the Belle of Oregon about 10 o'clock the same evening.

CITY HALL.—We understand that the common council of East Portland contemplate the purchase of the property owned by Gov. W. W. Thayer, located at the corner of Third and I streets, where his residence stood before the fire. The object of the purchase is to erect on the site a city hall.

GOING TO REBUILD.—Workmen commenced Saturday morning to excavate for the foundation for a new brick building in the burned district in East Portland on the land belonging to Mr. Henry Weinhard of this city. The building is to be 25x50 feet, two stories high.

VALUABLE CARGO.—The steamship Geo. W. Elder, which sailed from Astoria Saturday morning for San Francisco, carried hence a very valuable cargo. The treasure shipment and cargo together aggregated about $250,000.

TIME OF SAILING.—The steamship Great Republic is announced to sail hence next Friday morning (9th inst.) at 4 o'clock with freight and passengers. The time of the sailing of the Oregon has not been announced yet.

INDISPOSED.—Dr. Manasse intended to pay a professional visit to Salem to-day, but owing to indisposition he has deferred his visit for the present. He expects, however, to visit the capital shortly.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge Deady will announce in this court this morning the decision in the case of Vance vs. Burbank et al., upon the demurrer to the bill of complaint.

THE TRULLINGER'S PATENT BRAKE — We have examined the new brake recently patented by John C Trullinger of Astoria which is advertised in this paper, and must say that it works with excellent effect. It is the simplest and we believe the most effective brake ever used It may be applied to wagons and vehicles of all kinds, and also to railway cars It is lighter than any other brake carries no mud and is not attached to the wagon box as other brakes are, hence when the box is taken off it does not remove the brake At the same time it is worked with greatest ease A child may handle it. Many citizens of Astoria testify to its successful working among them J W Gerhart, R. R. Spedden F S. Jewett of the Astoria Truck and Dray Company Judge Bowlby and others Mr Fred Sherman says of it In relation to the Trullinger patent wagon brake I have this to say That I have used it upon my heaviest wagons, and have put it to severe tests with loads of gravel and earth, and found the brake to do effective work, even better than any I ever saw with a load of two tons going down a pitch of thirty feet in a distance of one hundred feet, without breeching upon the horses harness, and I do most positively and emphatically recommend its use. It holds the load easy without extraordinary effort on the part of the driver This brake we believe is destined to prevent the accidents which have heretofore been so common, like that by which Asher Wall was killed not long ago in Southern Oregon It will be introduced by Hawley, Dodd & Co

HERE WE ARE AGAIN — We have appealed to the mayor, common council, chief of police and pound master, in vain, and now we would like to know if the superintendent of streets can not interpose and prevent cattle men from driving their herds through the city in the day time at the imminent risk of persons who are on the streets Here is an opportunity for an official to distinguish himself and merit the benedictions of a grateful people. Tennyson in this energetic verse expresses our feelings exactly

Like some of the simple great ones gone
Forever and ever by.
One still strong man in a blatant land,
Whatever you call what care I?
Aristocrat, autocrat, democrat, one
Who can rule and dare not lie

If this fails to produce enforcement of the cattle ordinance, we shall try again We hereby give notice that we intend to persevere in this cause.

PACIFIC COAST PATENTS. — The following patents have been issued to Pacific coast inventors. Wm. R. Hamilton and G Canning Smith, Mendocino, Cal, railway car trucks, John Brizee, Alvarado, Cal, window screens Hiram M. Clemons, Gold Hill, Nev, horseshoes; Geo R Evans, San Francisco, Cal, non-conducting compounds; Wm H. Henderson, San Jose Cal., safety hooks for harness saddles; Carl L. DEATH OF MR. PERRINE. — About a week ago Mr. C. E. Perrine, who owns a farm near Oak Point, W. T., was thrown from a load of hay, striking on one arm, bruising the limb Although his arm gave him considerable pain, Mr. Perrine continued to work, throwing off several loads of hay. His arm soon began to swell and to give him great pain, and he was compelled to quit work. Erysipelas set in, shortly followed by mortification Mr. Perrine became alarmed at the symptoms and visited Portland to receive medical attention. He continued to grow worse, and died last Friday night at the residence of Mr H. L Herman, his brother in-law. Deceased was an excellent citizen and highly esteemed by all who knew him He was an honored member of the Masonic fraternity The funeral took place yesterday afternoon under the auspices of that order.

REPAIRING PARTY. — This morning a repairing party will leave here for Roseburg. On arriving there they will start at once for Coos Bay, overhauling the line as they advance When this is accomplished, the repairers will start from Roseburg and proceed south as far as Sacramento, making whatever repairs are needed, and putting the line in the best condition possible. The party will take with them a team and wagon and all necessary tools and material.

S. S. WORK — Rev. D. Gregory, of Santa Rosa, California, will meet the superintendents, teachers and friends of Sabbath school work at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock this (Monday) evening to consult with them in regard to the assembly of Sunday school workers, to be held next June at Yosemite valley, California. All friends of S S work are cordially invited

WALKING MATCH — The walking match which came off last Saturday evening at Oro Fino hall between Messrs Crandall and Reid, for the distance of ten miles, resulted in Reid coming out victor. During the walk Crandall fell down and sprained his ankle His opponent came in about 10½ minutes ahead making the distance in 1 hour, 30 minutes and 30 seconds

INVITATION PARTY — Capt. Carroll, of the Great Republic has generously granted the freedom of his elegant vessel to several gentlemen who will entertain a number of ladies and gentlemen on that steamer this evening. The affair which is strictly private, promises to be one of unlimited social pleasure to those participating.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE. — Saturday some very desirable property located in East Portland, was disposed of at administrator's sale. A block located on Third street between G and H was purchased by Gov W W Thayer for the sum of $1,000 A quarter of a block just opposite was purchased by Van B DeLashmutt for $550

ARRIVED — A dispatch from Astoria to Col J. R. Farrish yesterday states that the American ships Belle of Oregon, from Hongkong and the Storm King from Bombay had both arrived there. The Storm King arrived late Saturday afternoon, and the Belle of Oregon about 10 o clock the same evening.

CITY HALL. — We understand that the common council of East Portland contemplate the purchase of the property owned by Gov W W Thayer located at the corner of Third and I streets, where his residence stood before the fire. The object of the purchase is to erect on the site a city hall.

GOING TO REBUILD. — Workmen commenced Saturday morning to excavate for the foundation for a new brick building in the burned district in East Portland on the land belonging to Mr. Henry Weinhard of this city The building is to be 20x50 feet two stories high

VALUABLE CARGO — The steamship Geo W. Elder, which sailed from Astoria Saturday morning for San Francisco carried hence a very valuable cargo The treasure shipment and cargo together aggregate about $250 000

TIME OF SAILING — The steamship Great Republic is announced to sail hence next Friday morning (9th inst) at 4 o clock with freight and passengers The time of the sailing of the Oregon has not been announced yet

INDISPOSED — Dr Manasse intended to pay a professional visit to Salem today but owing to indisposition he has deferred his visit for the present He expects however to visit the capital shortly

POSTAL SERVICE WANTED

GRAY'S RIVER Pacific Co W T
July 29 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The citizens of this place have had no mail facilities for the last ten years We petitioned the department and at last succeeded in getting a mail route from Astoria to Gray's River The distance is about 24 miles good navigation all the way but it seems we are yet doomed to disappointment for we can get no appointment for postmaster here We have written several times to Mr Steel, but as yet have received no notice Now we are American citizens, we pay our taxes and abide by the laws We would like to know if there is not something rotten in Denmark We are about 100 strong We do not like to secede but we want our rights If our postal officers cannot attend to their business let us expose them If Uncle Sam cannot afford to carry our mail for us we want to know it, and we will get it carried ourselves What occupies Mr Steel's time so fully that he cannot even answer a short letter on so important a subject? THE STEINWAY PIANOS AGAIN.

A RECOMMENDATION AND TESTIMONIAL FROM LEADING ARTISTS IN THE WORLD

The Piano Fortes manufactured by Messrs Steinway & Sons, have established for themselves so world wide a reputation that it is hardly possible for us to add anything to their great fame.

Having thoroughly tested and tried these instruments personally for years both in public and private it becomes our pleasant duty to express our candid opinion regarding their unquestioned superiority over any other Piano known to us

Among the chief points of their uniform excellence are Greatest possible depth, richness and volume of tone, combined with a rare brilliancy clearness and perfect evenness throughout the entire scale and above all a surprising duration of sound the pure and sympathetic quality of which never changes under the most delicate or powerful touch

This peculiarity is found exclusively in the "Steinway" Piano, and together with the matchless precision, elasticity and promptness of action always characterizing these instruments as well as their unequaled durability under the severest trials, is truly surprising We therefore consider the "Steinway" Pianos in all respects the best instrument made in this country or in Europe use them solely and exclusively ourselves in public or private and recommend them invariably to our friends and public

We have at different times expressed our opinions regarding the pianos of various makers but freely and unhesitatingly pronounce MESSRS STEINWAY & SONS Pianos superior to them all

No remedy ever introduced in the market of Oregon has given more universal satisfaction than the Oregon Blood Purifier. Unsolicited certificates, praising its wonderful qualities from people competent to judge are sufficient recommendations to satisfy the most skeptical. It has become a family favorite highly valued in every household Being perfectly harmless and pleasant in taste it is easily taken by any child and by the most delicate female, as well as the most robust man There is no possible danger of any serious results from a continued use of this famous medicine Oregon's choicest medicinal herbs carefully selected and scientifically prepared are the principal ingredients of this celebrated purifier of the blood regulator of the stomach bowels and kidneys and eradicator of any complaint having its origin from a disordered state of these functions such as Biliousness in its worst form Costiveness Dyspepsia Indigestion Heartburn Sour Stomach Sick Headache &c As a guard against fever and ague it is unexcelled People living in malarious and miasmatic localities, or when the ague is already lodged in the system should use in addition to the Oregon Blood Purifier the Willamette Fever and Ague Mixture which is put up especially for the Willamette Valley and the most certain remedy for Fever and Ague Mountain Fever Chills Intermittent and Bilious Fever Dumb Ague &c &c Prepared at the Pharmaceutical Labratory of WM PFUNDER & CO corner First and Ash streets.

Pendleton Independent: Jacob Frazer, who has been out in the mountains looking after his sheep, called on Friday afternoon. He reports finding his bands all right, very little mixed, and out of about 9,000 only six dead ones were found His wound, received at Willow Springs, is healing nicely.

S Lewis, of Sweet Home valley, Linn county, some time ago discovered a deposit of burr stone on Bald Peter mountain, a prominent landmark near the valley, and having taken some of the stone out sent it to San Francisco for inspection. It was tested by Wagner, the millstone manufacturer of that place, and he writes that it is fully equal to the French stones which he imports for use in his manufactory Mr Wagner is considerably interested in the discovery and immediately sent up word for 3,000 pounds to be taken out so that he could manufacture a pair of stones from it and thus give it a better test This is now nearly ready for shipment The importance of this discovery will be realized when it is known that all burr stones are now imported from other countries Numerous substitutes are found in the United States but all are inferior to the French

The South Tired of Randall

[From the Vicksburg Herald]

In the last congress the South was basely betrayed by Speaker Sam Randall a man who owed his position to the Southern press and Southern votes We have had enough of him though he claims to be a Democrat And we have had enough of all those who are unwilling to treat the South as an equal

In the Erie, Pa, district the Republican convention of one hundred and fifty delegates was in session two weeks trying to nominate a candidate for congress Finally it was settled that Mr. Osmer, of Venango county, should have the nomination and pay the bills of the delegates The nomination thus obtained is "bolted" by the Republicans of Erie county.

BEAUTY: OR, THE
Secret of a Fair Face.

An Item of Interest to Every Lady who Desires to be More Beautiful than she now is.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate, possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty —a pure and clear complexion. What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish. It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion. It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner It removes all roughness, eruptions, redness, blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power. It drives away all evidence of fatigue and excitement It makes the plainest face beautiful. It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund and plump. It is mot in her of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle. The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty, and, while it is as harmless as water, it is so life like in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use. Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.

MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 5, 1878.

TO A CHILD.

Thou hast the colors of the Spring,
The gold of kingcups triumphing,
The blue of wood-bells wild;
But winter thoughts thy spirit fill,
And thou art wondering from us still,
Too young to be our child.

Yet have thy fleeting smiles confessed,
Thou dear and much-desired guest,
That home is near at last;
Long lost in high mysterious lands,
Close by our door thy spirit stands,
Its journey well nigh passed.

Oh, sweet, bewildered soul, I watch
The fountains of thine eyes, to catch
New fancies bubbling there,
To feel our common light, and lose
The flush of strange ethereal hues
Too dim for us to share!

Fade, cold immortal lights, and make
This creature human for my sake,
Since I am naught but clay;
An angel is too fine a thing
To sit beside my chair and sing,
And cheer my passing day.

I smile, who could not smile unless
The air of rapt unconciousness
Passed with the fading hours;
I joy in every childish sign
That proves the stranger less divine
And much more meekly ours.

I smile, as one by night who sees
Through mist of newly-budded trees,
The clear Orion set,
And knows that soon the dawn will fly
In fire across the riven sky,
And gild the woodlands wet.

Edmund W. Gosse, in the Athenæum.

GENIUS AND LABOR.

[From Appleton's Journal.]

Genius for anything, whether literature, exploration, discovery, science, art or war, not only wants, it requires effort and experience for its unfolding. Frederick the Great was incontestably a born captain; he had extraordinary courage, fortitude, fertility of resource, invincible will;—yet at his first battle, Molwitz, he fled from the field. His army had been victorious, but the sight of real war so affected his nerves that he put spurs to his horse and galloped miles from the scene of action. How wholly contradictory this of the prince who, by individual force and exertion, lifted his petty kingdom into a great military and political state; who increased his territory 29,000 square miles and his subjects nearly 4,000,000! He had appeared before his accession a sensualist, an aimless voluptuary, an empty theorist, a speculative scribbler; for he lacked opportunity, scope, freedom—the things which effort usually supplies to investigating or creative genius. Having got what he had lacked, he proved himself an eminent commander, a sagacious statesman, a profound political economist, an architect of government. Men of the most spontaneous intellect are rarely spontaneous in their distinguishing achievements. Hard, absorbing work must generally be done a lifetime, either in preparation or execution. Sheridan had the name of a radiant and ever ready wit; he had but to open his mouth, it was thought, and epigrams flowed thence in a sparkling stream. He was very vain of, and carefully cultivated, such reputation. But he did not deserve it. His astonishing readiness was a sham; he used to lock himself in his chamber, and, under pretense of recovering from a debauch, slowly and deliberately devise the fine speeches which he assumed to throw off by sudden impulse. Some of his vaunted impromptus cost him hours of reflection. The present text of "The School for Scandal" is totally different from the first copy; not lines merely, but passages, scenes and entire acts were recast and rewritten again and again. Almost everything that emanated from him was the result of much deliberation. He was a rare genius; but before he was so ranked, as well as after, he was a hard worker. Tennyson's best poems seem as if they had run in all their sympathy and sweetness from his overflowing brain. But no poet has ever toiled more over his verses—he forms and re-forms them, changes, erases, reproduces, files and polishes them until those that stand would never suspect their relation to their early and remote progenitors. Very few poems or writings of any kind that are reread or remembered but have been wrought with copious brain-sweat. As a rule, the offspring of genius, whatever its nature, is born with exceeding travail, although it is common to believe it generated after the manner of Pallas. Emerson, the most original, if not the most profound, of our writers, and one of the quaintest of poets, is the slowest of composers. He considers twenty lines, which he is willing to keep, a good day's work—and they are remembering their kind. Having been a professional author for more than 40 years, he has labored steadily, and the entire contents of his wise little books could easily be put into a single octavo. His fame is world-wide; his genius is universally conceded; but he has always toiled terribly; his whole life has been devoted to observation, meditation, comparison, analysis, speculation. Albeit not a bit of a book-maker, he has been, in one sense, supremely professional. Hawthorne's works are patterns of excellence in design, detail and finish. In literary Europe he is known where scarcely any other American is; his rich genius has long been recognized on both sides of the sea. But was a single chapter of his dashed off as most of us are inclined to believe the writing of genius ordinarily is? Hawthorne has made no literary confessions; he shrank from the thought of exposing his intellectual laboratory. But it is altogether probable that his productions grew—grew with him, out of him, and into him again; that they were woven fibre by fibre; that they were the indelible photographs upon his mind of severe studies of nature and humanity. His matchless, flawless sentences show the most solicitous attrition, the ceaseless exercise of enthusiasm for perfection. They appear so natural that they must be the offspring of the deepest art. They are the mingled product of great genius and great work, one always coming to the aid of the other, and preserving a just and beautiful proportion.

Strong proof of the rapid stride which education has made in France is derived from the fact that only 4,992 of the 294,382 men admitted into the army last year were unable to read and write.

Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON, Aug 3.—Wool; market generally unchanged. The demand for combing and delaine fleeces continues without abatement. Every available lot is sought after, but clipping wools are only in moderate request. Apart from the activity in delaine and combing selections, the market is comparatively tame, and manufacturers appear more or less indifferent about clothing grades. The demand for fine fleeces is fair, the sales including 353,000 pounds. Pulled wools are in better demand. The California wool business has again been quite large, comprising 577,000 pounds for the week at 16@20c for spring and 15@20c for fall. Best northern is selling at 27@30c.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success
IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL
Chronic and Acute Diseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease, in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

DR. BRENAN has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself. Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success, not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys, as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of, and never fails to give relief at once, and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints, and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health.

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

DR. BRENAN will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally, and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments, to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps.

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify.

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland, requiring medical treatment of the proper kind, who desire to consult with me, will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so-called Doctors, through pretended friendship for the patients. Look out for them; they are knaves, prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR. PAUL M. BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer, and read his sign on his door.
